

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

SECRETARY OF LABOR
WASHINGTON, D.C.

In the Matter of
AMERICAN INDIAN CENTER, INC.

Case No. 80-BCA/CETA-74

REMAND ORDER

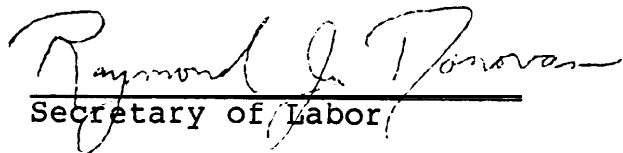

On April 26, 1982, Administrative Law Judge Rudolf Sobernheim of this Department issued a Decision and Order in the above-captioned matter, pursuant to the regulations at 20 CFR 676.91(f), that decision subsequently became a final decision of the Secretary of Labor. The American Indian Center, Inc. (AICI), thereupon requested review of that decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. The court, upon consideration of a joint motion by counsel for the AICI and this Department, remanded the case to the Secretary for further proceedings. American Indian Center, Inc. v. Donovan, Case No. 82-3464 (Order filed Feb. 2, 1983).

The joint motion for remand which was granted by the court states, inter alia, that:

3. A review of the Administrative Law Judge's Decision and Order below discloses that certain findings essential to affirm the determination of disallowed costs were not decided in the administrative adjudication.

4. Because the Secretary's decision is inadequate for judicial review, the appeal should be remanded to the Secretary for reconsideration of the Decision and Order, below, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 817(b) and for reconsideration based on the arguments raised in the Brief submitted by the Petitioner.

Upon consideration of this matter, and in view of the Administrative Law Judge's familiarity with this case, it is Ordered that this matter is remanded to the Office of Administrative Law Judges for further proceedings and determinations in compliance with the court's Order.
